New Claims 42-62 Are All Patentable Over The Cited Art

No new matter is introduced with new Claims 42-62. In addition, Claims 42-62 are not indefinite under 35 U.S.C. § 112, 2nd paragraph. In addition, none of these claims includes any one of the limitations identified in the 35 U.S.C. § 112, 2nd paragraph rejection portion of the Office Action.

Furthermore, Claim 42 recites, inter alia, a cellular telephone interface supported by the support, said cellular telephone interface being configured to wirelessly transmit a first signal from the cellular telephone interface to a cellular telephone, wherein said first signal corresponds to the microphone signal, wherein said cellular telephone interface is further configured to wirelessly receive a second signal from the cellular telephone and to output a telephone output based upon said second signal; and a stereo wireless receiver supported by the support, said stereo wireless receiver being configured to wirelessly receive a stereo audio signal from an audio device, wherein said stereo wireless receiver is further configured to output a stereo output based upon said stereo audio signal. These limitations are not taught by the cited art. Therefore, Claim 42 is patentable over the cited art.

Claims 43-50 depend from Claim 42 and are therefore patentable for at least these reasons as well. In addition, Claims 43-50 are patentable for the unique combination of features described therein.
